Poetry.

Grandmother.

BY EBEN B. REXFORD.

Graudmother's face is wrinkled,
And her eyes have grown so dim
That she cannot read her Bible,
Nor follow through the hymn;
And her step is growing slower
Her voice is sometimes faint,
But it never will get weak enough
To make a sad complaint.

Her hands are sometimes idle,
For knitting tires them so;
But her brain is always busy
With thoughts of Heaven I know.
She is thinking of her dear ones,
A little way ahead,
Just at the end of the pathway
Her tired feet must tread.

I think sometimes, as I watch her,
That she sees them for a while
Breaks o'er her face, and she whispers,
"Yes, dear; in a little while!"
Her face will lose its wrinkles,
And the dimness leave her eyes,
And grandmother will be young again
In the land beyond the skies.

It always thrills me strangely
To think of her, standing there
At the gate of heaven knocking,
When her feet have climbed the stair,
And the key turns in the portal
The gates swing open wide,
And she passes into heaven
And the peace on the other side!—

To meet her husband's kisses,
And to hear him softly say,
"I have waited a long time, darling,
For this happy, happy day."
Yes, grandma, her will be young again,
Though her heart was never old,
When she passes through the gateway
Into the streets of gold.

Selected Story.

"Raising the Devil."

It was a dark and tempestuous night, a night to fill the soul with fright; the thunders pealed, the lightnings flashed, the wild beasts squealed and the elements clashed, while the rain from above in torents dashed when a poor preacher of the gospel wended his way through the dismal intricacies of a western forest many years ago.

The poor man felt anything but comfortable for he was wet through to the skin, and almost tired to death. He had been tramping about since morning, besides he had lost his way, so that the reader can guess the state of mind he was in, and also appreciate the sudden transition from despair to hope which he experienced on seeing the glimmer of a light ahead. He quickened his flagging footsteps and soon came up to the light, which issued from the window of a solitary log cabin in the forest.

Remembering the scriptural injunction "knock and it shall be opened unto you," he did so; but without meeting with any response. He rapped again, louder than before, and this time a gruff female voice asked:

"Who's there?"

"It's I," was the indefinite reply of our rain-soaked parson.

"Well, who are you and what do you want?" asked the voice, gruffer than before.

"A poor, benighted preacher of the gospel who has lost his way, and who wishes to stay here to-night," answered the parson, in a dolorous voice.

"Well, stay there—I don't see what's to hinder you."

"But I am almost starved, and I will pay you liberally for some supper." he responded chattering with cold and not in the least appreciating the joke.

The words liberally pay acted like open tesame, and after a few moments of delay, occasioned by the unfastening of the door, it was opened and our pastor entered.

He found himself in a rough apartment with a large fire place at one end, on which a great fire was blazing; a rough deal table and three chairs, besides a box filled with dry flax comprised its furniture.

But all minor deficiencies seemed to be more than made up by the lady of the house, for she was fully six feet in height and weighed nigh unto three hundred pounds.

After having placed some food on the table she turned to the parson, who stood shivering before the fire, making futile attempts to dry himself by alternately turning one side, then the other to the fire.

"Now I want you to eat this grub as quick as you know how, and then tramp for its perfectly impossible for me to keep you here over night!"

"But my good woman," said the parson, anxiously. "I shall perish in this inelement weather; I have been wandering in this fearful storm since morning, and if you will have any compassion or pity at all you will try and give me some place where I can be sheltered from this storm for the night," and he offered her a five dollar bill.

"Well," said the woman, avariciously clutching the money, "if you think you can stay in the garret, maybe you can stay; but hurry up, for I expect my husband home every minute, and it's as much as your life is worth if he should find you here, for he's a very devil incarnate, and would think no more of murdering you than he would of shooting a grizzly!"

The woman produced a short ladder as she spoke, and bade the parson to get up in the garret.

There was a small "drop" or trap door in the ceiling, which raised of its own accord on the parson's head pressing it upward, and not without some difficulty he managed to squeeze himself through the aperture.

After he was up, the woman told him to shut the trap and not to make any noise for his life, and then taking the ladder away, the parson was left to his own reflections.

Wet and uncomfortable as he was, his fatigus was such that he had almost fallen asleep, when he was disturbed by some one's knocking at the door.

Being somewhat curious to know what sort of a man his unknown host was, he arose and peered through a small crack in the floor into the room beneath.

He saw the woman open the door cautiously, and after admitting a short, thick set man in a heavy cloak, lock it again.

From the mysterious actions and whisperings that ensued, our parson rightly concluded that the person who had just entered was not the woman's husband but her paramour, who had taken advantage of the husband's absence to pay the woman a nocturnal visit.

After whispering together for a while the woman went to a cupboard and produced a bottle of whisky and a plate of ham and bread, which she set on the table, and the twain were soon engaged in a loving repast.

While the parson was watching the guilty couple there came a thundering knock at the door, which caused them both to jump to their feet in the greatest consternation. Without a moment's loss of time, the woman ran to the box of flax and emptied its contents upon the floor; she then bade the man, who was almost scared to death, to get into the box, which he was only glad to do, and when he was in she rapidly covered him up with the flax. The woman then ran to the door unbolted it, all the while rubbing her eyes as if just awakened out of her sleep.

"Why the devil don't you let a feller stand ouside all night!" exclaimed the new comer, a tall, powerful, villainous looking man, clad in a hunter's garb, as he hit her a ringing box on the ear.

"I was asleep and didn't hear you before?" whimpered the woman. "And don't for God's sake, curse so much, for there's a Methodist minister up in the garret."

"Who cares for the Methodist minister, I'd like to know? But I'll soon have him out of this? Here, you old canting hypocrite, come out of this and show yourself, or I'll make you!" he exclaimed with many imprecations, as he set the ladder before the trap door.

The poor parson, almost dead with fright, slowly descended the ladder, looking as white as a ghost, for, from the ruffian's manner, he expected that he would be a ghost shortly.

"Don't hurt the poor man! See how sickly he looks!" exclaimed the woman pitying the poor parson's distress.

"You shut up, and mind your business, or it'll be the worse for you," was the gracious reply of her lord; then turning to the trembling parson, he asked:

"Are you a Methodist minister, and do you believe in hell and the devil?"

The parson replied in the affirmative.

"Well, then, by the eternal, I don't! and if you believe in the devil you'll either make him appear, or I'll cut your lying throat and make you appear before him!" and he drew his bowie-knife in a threatening manner.

The poor preacher was in anything but an enviable situation, and thoughts of the other world began to fill his mind with anxious forebodings; for it is a remarkable fact that however much clergymen preach and talk of the joys and bliss of the future world, they prefer to have others go and enjoy it.

This may be self abnegation of pure unselfishness—Heaven knows!

"Are you most ready?" asked the ruffian, raising his knife as he saw how the other hesitated. "I'll give you just three minutes, and if the devil is not in you'll be with the devil!"

"My friend," said the parson, into whose head a brilliant idea had popped, "that there is a hell is a well established fact, as I can prove by hundreds of writers and that the devil exists allows of no contradiction; and that I have the power to make him appear is also true; but dreadful for you will be the consequence if he does! Better for you had you never been born to see Satan face to face in the wicked state in which you are in!"

"D—n you, stop your preaching and call the old boy! I'll stand the consequences; and be quick about it, for time's up."

The parson went to the fire-place and took thence a burning brand, which he applied to the box of flax. It blazed up almost like gunpowder, and the earthly yell that issued from the poor devil in the box was truly appalling.

With an acrobatic power of the possession of which he was himself unaware, he leaped out of the box, covered from head to foot with burning flax. With roars and howls of agony he made straight for the door, but he was not so quick as the owner of the premises, for with one look of terror at the burning figure he fled out of the house, closely followed by his "Satanic majesty."

When they were both gone the parson gave his hostess a short but effective lecture on connubial duties, after which he seated himself comfortably before the fire.

When the woman's husband returned he treated the parson with the greatest respect, fully convinced that he had the power to raise the devil at will.

Communicated.

Grant and Pool.

To the Editor of the North Carolinian:

I notice in the Asheville Pioneer of the 26th ult., that the names of President U. S. Grant of Illinois, and Hon. John Pool of North Carolina have been suggested as suitable Republican candidates for the Presidency and Vice-Presidency of the United States for 1872. No better selections could have been made. The course of President Grant deserves the approbation of all. His administration has been one of prudence and economy during which the great national debt has been decreased beyond the expectations of any. He has shown to the Democrats, who have tried so hard to repudiate the national debt, that it can be settled in a more honorable way than repudiation. The praiseworthy manner in which he has conducted the national affairs generally during his present administration, merits his renomination.

It is useless to tell the people of the country anything about Hon. John Pool. His reputation as a statesman and friend of law and order is national. No man is more ably qualified to fill the Vice-Presidency than Hon. John Pool. He more justly deserves the Vice-Presidency than any other man in the United States. He has done more to restore the Southern States to their proper places in the Union than any other man in the United States. Through his influence and indefatigable labor, the Ku Klux, who have been prowling about in different sections of the Southern States, hanging, shooting, whipping and scourging innocent and inoffensive men at mid-night hours, have been found out and brought to justice. Through his exertions, peace and tranquility are about to be restored in the different localities of the Southern States which were before subject to turmoil and confusion.

It is therefore eminently proper that the American people and especially those of the South should manifest their appreciation of, and gratitude for his services by using every honorable effort to secure his nomination as Vice-President. The Asheville Pioneer lends the van.

Let the other Republican newspapers in the South follow its example, so that the people of the North may see that that they heartily endorse his course.

Young America—Grammatical Progress.

The Atlanta Constitution publishes the following communication. Parson Conway had better send for one of these boys, to give lectures to our adult teachers:

Editor Constitution: At the recent splendid exhibition of the "Lee High School," in Greensboro', Ga., a class of small sprouts, three feet high, and in prodigious standing collars, got off the following specimen of their progress in parsing. The audience was speechless, and many hands were lifted in horror:

Teacher—Parse "man."

Pupil—Man is a common noun of the feminine gender.

Teacher—What's that, sir?

Pupil—man is a common noun, of the femirine gender—common, 'cause he can be bought cheap; and feminine gender 'cause he's always got woman on the brain; eighth pe son, 'cause his wife and six children come first—is in the objective case, and governed by a woman.

Teacher—Go to your seat, sir, and put a wet cloth on your head.

Teacher—Next, parse "woman."

Pupil—Woman is a female noun of the masculine gende.

Teacher—Mercy on us! what do you say, si-?

Pupil—She's a female noun of the masculine gender—masculine, 'cause she wears the breechaloons and is determined to vote; she's compounded of cotton, whalebone, starch, smiles, sunshine and thunderclouds; is in the first person, 'cause she's always the person speaking; plural number, 'cause she makes more noise than a dozen parrots—is in the objective case and governed by the fash ions.

Teacher—Sit down, sir, and rinse your mouth with prohylactic fluid.

Teacher—Next; parse "boy."

Pupil—Boy is an uncommon noun, of the goslin gender and female persuasion—uncommon, 'cause he's hard to find now-a-days; goslin gender, 'cause he soon enters the threshold of gooshood; female persuasion, 'cause he's always got the heart sick about some female; first person, pig like; singular number, 'cause there's nobody but himself in the objective case and governed by his embryo moustache, Scheidam Schnapps and the length of his daddy's purse.

Teacher—Go home, sir, and bathe your feet in mustard.

Teacher—Parse "girl."

Pupil—Girl is an angelic noun, of the Grecian bend gender, and masculine tendencies.

Teacher—Save us from sudden death! These boys will never be raised. How is that sir?

Pupil—Girl is an angelic noun, 'cause she paints her cheeks and loves myuna. She's compounded of cosmetics, flowers, fuss and feathers; is of masculine tendencies, 'cause she wears shirt bosoms, paper collars, and always has her head full of boys; singular number, 'cause the boys are afraid of them, and matrimony is played out; third person, 'cause she is much spoken of; in the objective case and governed by a gipsy bonnet.

Teacher—Next; parse "corn."

Pupil—Corn is an uncommon noun, of the neuter gender.

Teacher—Bless my life! Go on, Sir.

Pupil—Is an uncommon noun, 'cause farmers have well nigh quit raising it. It is used as an adjective, and belongs to Tennesse, Ohio and Kentucky. When parsed as a noun, it is in the objective case and governed by cotton.

Teacher—Sit down, sir.

Teacher—Next; parse "cotton."

Pupil—Cotton is a royal noun, of the royal gender.

Teacher—Listen at that!

Pupil—Royal, 'cause it is king, (but only over the Southern people). Starving gender, 'cause it has well nigh starved out the South, in the objective case and governed by lazy freedmen.

Teacher—Next; parse "fashion."

Pupil—Fashion is a tyrannical noun, of the common gender.

Teacher—Catfish and blunderbusses! What's that, sir?

Pupil—Fashion is a tyrannical noun, 'cause it must be obeyed and laughs at a poor man's purse; common gender, 'cause all people bow to it; it is compounded of flounces, flimsies, ruffles, bubbles, troubles, ruffs, cuffs, snuffs, higgles, giggles, sniggles, curls, furls, hairs, snares, Grecian bend fuss and feathers. It was once in the objective case and governed by Eugenie, but is now in the nominative case, independent.

Teacher—Go home, sir, and go to bed Next, parse "baby."

Pupil—Baby is an obstreperous, musical noun, of the neuter gender.

Teacher—Moses and the prophets, save us from destruction? What do you say, you little imp?

Pupil—baby is a musical noun, 'cause it sings a soft tune between midnight and day, especially of a cold night; it is neuter gender, 'cause it is neither male nor female till it is big enough to wear breeches. It weighs according to size, and measures according to proportions; is compounded of milk and lungs, grows at a rapid rate, and soon learns to smoke cigars, drink spirits, talk short to dad, and make love to the gals. It is also of the spoilt gender, 'cause it is allowed to pat its foot in the gravy whenever it chooses, is in the objective case, and governed by candy and sugar plums.

Teacher—Go home, sir, and tell your mother to rock you to sleep.

Teacher—Parse "matrimony."

Pupil—Matrimony is an ancient noun, of the defunct gender.

Teacher—Hear him! You little vagabond, what do you say?

Pupil—Matrimony is of the defunct gender, 'cause it's played out. Girls are plentiful as blackberries, but they've got nothing. They toil not, neither do they spin, yet Solomon in all his glory couldn't spin like 'em. Matrimony is compounded of the words mate and money, but when there's a match now-a days, it's nothing without the money. Third person, 'cause it's spoken of much by the girls; in the objective case, and governed by the spondooliks of the girl's daddy.

Teacher—Take a back seat, and rub your head with a brick.

Teacher—Parse "kissing."

Pupil—Kissing is a common, liable noun, of the explosive gender.

Teacher—Snakes alive! What do you mean?

Bupil—Kissing is in the explosive gender, 'cause it's generally attended with various explosive sounds, somewhat like the bursting of a torpedo; sometimes like the sucking of a calf; sometimes like unto weeping, as Jacob kissed Rachael and lifted up his voice and wept. It is common, 'cause it is peculiar to all ages and sexes, 'specially to young girls, preachers and widowers. Kissing is derived from bussing, and is of various kinds. 1. There's rebus, which is bussing again. 2. There's omnibus, which it bussing all the gals in the room. 3. There's blunderbuss, which is one man kissing another man's wife; and so on. There's symabus, which is one girl kissing another girl, where so many boys are spoiling for a buss. It is second person, because it takes two persons to perform the operation; plural number, 'cause they generally take more than one when they get a chance; is in the objective case, and governed by surrounding circumstances.

Just here the teacher and vast audience broke down. A bevy of red-headed girls rushed upon the rostrum and demanded that the little imps be hung instanter, if not sooner, and order was not insured till the marshal assured them that all the little reprobates should be hung at sunrise next morning. The teacher was taken off on a window shutter.

Narrow Guage Railways.

There is hope for the little towns which are not on the route between the great centres, through which no railroad passes, and whose population and traffic it has been supposed would never be sufficient to secure one. A town without a railroad in or near it is supposed must die, at least it is impossible that such a town should thrive. Hence enterprising men, the young and the aspiring, all who are eager to better their condition, are anxious to get away from it. All over the country men are flocking to towns having railroad facilities. Hence their rapid growth and the decline of all other towns. Hence the eagerness and struggles of the smaller towns to secure within their borders the location of proposed roads. To fail in such endeavor they think is to condemn themselves to perpetual decline.

Despondent as they are there is hope for them all. No town need be without a railroad. A railroad with a guage as broad as our ordinary railroads it may not be able to get, but it can have a narrow guage road. Instead of a road 4 feet 8 1-2 inches wide it may have one of 3 feet guage. Such a road can be built for two-fifths the cost of the wider road and can be operated at one half expense. Passengers can be transmitted on such a road at 40 miles an hour. It is as well suited for the transportation of freight. Instead of freight cars weighing ten tons and carrying ten tons it would use cars weighing three tons and carrying six tons. Freight can be reshipped at two cents a ton if the cars be placed side by side. In view of these facts there is certainly abundant reason for the assertion that "everything looks to the narrow guages as the coming railway." Russia and Egypt are adopting a guage three feet six inches, while in India, Australia, New Zealand, &c., a scale three inches narrower has been adopted. In this country 2000 miles of narrow guage road are completed or about to be built. It is not by any means impossible that the time may come when the present guage on many of our railroads shall be changed to a narrow one, this being sufficient for their business and greatly diminishing expenses.

Every lover of his country must rejoice that the railways so indispensable to the growth of any town or village, can now be carried to all parts of our land, and of the world. Russia is penetrating Siberia with her narrow guage roads. Is there then any portion of this land whose towns are so small that a railroad may not be built to them and operated with profit?

Railroads are yet in their infancy. We have wondered at their expansion, but when a guage shall have been adopted by which they can be built and operated at about half their present cost, the number of miles which will then be constructed will indeed be astonishing, far surpassing anything yet seen. In equal ratio with the increase of its miles of profitable railroad, will be the growth of the country in wealth and in the general prosperity of its inhabitants.

Honor your Business.

It is a good sign when a man is proud of his work or his calling. Yet nothing is more common than to hear men finding fault constantly with their particular business, and deeming themselves unfortunate because fastened to it by the necessity of gaining a livelihood. In this men fret, and laboriously destroy all their comforts in the work; or they change their business, and go on miserably, sh

THE LESSON OF THE LATE ELECTIONS.

The result of the late elections in the Northern States is gratifying and the lesson they teach is valuable. Gratifying because it shows a continued Republican triumph, and valuable because it shows the malcontents, the futility of foisting side issues on a campaign where the main question is all absorbing.

The issues in each of the States were clear and sharply defined. On one side the retention and enforcement of the Constitutional rights of all was the battle cry; on the other the acceptance of results, against which the accepting party had exhausted every ingenuity and power, was the slogan. The people were quick to discern the true agency for the administration of the Constitution. They have decided to employ, for the enforcement of the Constitutional Amendments, the party through whose courage and persistence they exist; and to spurn the enemies of these great landmarks of liberty, as unfit custodians of the power and duties they create. The consequence is the vindication of the Republican party, and a renewed—and we trust a final rebuke to the party of disloyalty in war and sedition in peace.

Far deeper in its significance than the election of Legislatures and State tickets are these late victories. They go far to settle the national campaign of next year If anything were wanting to prove this, it might be readily found in the panic which has siezed the Democracy. No paper speaking in the name has yet been bold enough to suggest the name of of a Democrat for the Presidency. Its only hope seems to be the taking of some tainted Republican, and through such an agency, to steal a victory which it cannot fairly win in a manly fight. If anything could further illustrate the desperate strait of the Democracy, or the pitiable weakness and demoralization of its leaders, this idea does it. To poll the entire strength of the Democratic vote for any one but a Democrat will tax the power of far abler men than have yet attempted to manage the party. And to poll any considerable number of Republican votes for a Republican nominated for the purpose of defeating his party, and that purpose alone, is a folly so extravagant and wild, that none but leaders who have lost their wits in the whirl of disaster, could entertain it for a moment.

NOT UNITED.

The Democratic Address is not receiving the favor from the Democratic press of the State its authors hoped for. The Wilmington Star criticises it because of its failure to present some feasible, well digested plan for the settlement of the State Debt. It pronounces this a mistake. And as to the course insisted on by the Committee or the Amendments to the Constitution the Star expresses astonishment. It pronounces it folly to attempt again to go before the people on questions they so recently voted down.

The Fayettville Eagle is no better pleased with the Address. It opposes agitation on Constitutional amendments at this inopportune time. It wisely concludes that the people are not ready for anything of the kind and tells the Committee that they ought to have dismissed the subject after such a stunning defeat this summer.

And that independent Democratic paper published at Hickory Tavern—the Eagle—Says:

"There is, however, nothing new in the Address. Everything, with a few exceptions, in the Address has been gone over and over, time and again, and presented to the people, through the newspapers of the State, during the last six months.

The most of the changes recommended by the Committe are, in our judgement, necessary to the improvement of our material prosperity; but the Committee go even further than the Radicals ever went in their legislation. They leave out important Conservative points of improvement and lug in Radical suggestions, thus even out-Heroding Herod in their haste to mend up things, &c. They may all be, and no doubt are, quite popular already with all the dishonest scoundrels in the State.

We, for one, cannot and will not support all their recommendations.

So they go. The Democratic press is not united, and the Democracy of North Carolina are finding their political Jordan a still harder road to travel.

Old line Whigs! how do you like it? The leaders of the North Carolina Democracy have read out of the party. In their recent address they ignore the Conservative party—declaring that the only other great political party in the country, outside of the Republican, is the Nation-Democratic party! We told you it would come to this. How do you like it

A prominent Democrat—one of the hopeful sort—says he expects the party to have better luck in future. We can assure him that it must mend its ways first.

EDUCATION THE TRUE FOUNDATION OF OUR NATIONAL SAFETY.

Knowledge is power; it is progress; it is safety. When ignorance predominates there can be neither of these in an enduring sense. Behold the soil of Central and South America. It is covered with the ruins of disrupted Unions and the fragments of fallen Republics. There where nature has lavished her richest treasures and assumed her most sublime forms, the traveler sees cities depopulated and destroyed; dwellings blackened with incendiary fires, and hiding beneath their ruins the unburied skeletons of their slaughtered inhabitants. Agriculture, manufactures and trade neglected and prostrated, and the fountains of public wealth dried up; the semblance of religion without its vitality; law profaned, and its sacred forms made the instrument of oppression, of hate, revenge and murder; virtue dishonored; truth despised; public morality a scoff, and government a cheat and a lie,—where neither life nor liberty are safe; where Might lords it over Right, and society, racked by distrust and fear, is made the unresisting prey of a dissolute soldiery.

A terrible picture, and what has produced it? Why all this is but the dreadful growth springing from one accursed root, the fecund parent of anarchy and vice. That root is Popular Ignorance, for which there can be but one cure—PUBLIC EDUCATION. Because of lack of general education there has been no progress and for the masses no safety in all that favored country.

And what a lesson does all this teach. Truly republican institutions can only succeed where popular intelligence is fostered and encouraged. Being the loftiest developments of human wisdom their permanence must depend upon the general intelligence and morality of the people. Indeed their very existence presupposes not only a general diffusion of knowledge, but high attainments in it. Republics are the results of that high development of humanity which they in turn, best adapted to perfect, and thus development is inseperable from popular education. So long as the standard of general intelligence is high; so long as school houses and institutions of learniug dot our hills and valleys, so long will the people be able to decide upon their own interests and distinguish between the arts of the demagogue and the earnest aspirations of the patriot—between the ignus fatuas which lives to destroy, and the pole star whose steady ray guides to the haven of peace and security.

Our article is exceeding the length we designed. The point we wish to make is, that popular intelligence being essential to the progress, safety and real power of the State and Nation, the most efficient agency to secure it is a system of public Free Schools. In many of the American Commonwealths this system has been adopted, has been fostered by all parties, and is to-day the pride of all their citizens; but in North Carolina it has never had a fair test. Against it all the elements of hostility and opposition have been directed. Every weapon that lay ready to the hand of the Democratic partisan has been used to hinder organization, arouse suspicion and prejudice, and defeat its benificent purposes. But the friends of popular education must not surrender—must not despair. There are some things of such prime necessity, such proven excellence that they can assert themselves against all opposers, and this is of them. In the end it must triumph. Never give up.

We are sometimes amused to hear the Ku-Klux champions and their apologists expatiate upon the great writ of habeas corpus, and express their marvelous reverence for the Constitution and respect for the laws when the strong arm of the Government is stretched in defense of those who have been whipped and scourged and maimed for daring to exercise the very rights guaranteed them by the Constitution and the laws. We have always had our doubts about the genuineness of the devotion to "the cause of liberty throughout the world" that impels men to whip and murder their humble neighbors because they happen to belong to and vote with a different party.

The Democratic papers in Georgia are beginning to find out that there is a Ku-Klux organization in that State, and the Augusta Constitutionalist, the leading Democratic paper, urges the people to take the matter into their own hands and through their own Grand Juries and Courts to suppress the organization as the only means to avert the declaration of martial law and the diffusion of Federal troops throughout the State.

In his speech the other night Senator POOL very pointedly replied to the complaint that the action of the Government was causing so many people to leave the States of North and South Carolina, by saying that "innocent men never fly from justice." The very fact of these men leaving is prima facia evidence of their guilt. They are "leaving the country for the country's good."

The largest cotton-mill in the world will commence operations in Norwich, Conn., in a few weeks. Its capacity is 110,000 spindles.—Ex:

If it pays to manufacture cotton after transporting the raw product so far from where it is grown, it could be made to pay much better to manufacture it at this end of the line.

The finances of North Carolina are not so bad, that, with a willingness, and the ability we have, to pay, they cannot be managed to the satisfaction of our creditors, and the honor of ourselves.—Raleigh Carolinian.

So we have insisted all the time. But for the influence of the party led by the Sentinel the indebtedness of the State would long ere this have been amicably and honorably arranged.

The action of the Government is producing a wholesome alarm among the Ku-Klux in South Carolina. Important arrests have been made and confessions of the most startling character are in the possession of the authorities. The more guilty leaders are fleeing the State and the rank and file are surrendering by the score.

The avant couriers of intelligence and prosperity in every country are our Free Schools. They should be encouraged, fostered, sustained. The Republican party of North Carolina is the friend of free public education; the Democratic party has done all in its power to cripple and keep the system down. Let the people take a note of these facts.

The Legislature meets at Raleigh on Monday next.

Correspondence.

A cause for Complaint.

To the Editor of the North Carolinian:

Allow me a little space to bring before your readers a matter of importance to all who desire to see a substastial improvement in our section of the State.

It is well known that in other portions of North Carolina, particularly in and about Raleigh, the people are holding out inducements for Northerners and foreigners to purchase property and settle among them. Their lands are largely advertised at home and abroad and arrangements have long since been made with railroads and other lines of public travel by which prospectors can visit these localities at prices considerably below the regular fare.

Nearly all parties visiting North Carolina come directly to Norfolk, Va., and very many land in that city without any definate plan of further travel or any definate iden as to what part of the State they will visit. They have all probably heard of our Albemare region and desire to pay us a visit before looking elswhere, but they find such obstacles in the way that they turn in disgust to those less inviting sections which they can visit with some comfort and rapidity, and it is a fact, Mr. Editor, that many who come to Norfolk with the express intention of extending their travels to Elizabeth City and the country about here, have been completely disgusted with our present means of public travel between here and Norfolk and have gone into other parts of the State and invested their means, thus depriving us of their money and muscle. It was published some time ago that the Dismal Swamp Transportation Company would put a daily line of boats on the route between this place and Norfolk and for a while the Steamer "Jefferson" and "E. City" filled the bill, but the Company seem to be weary in well doing. The only good boat the Company have has been laid up in the dry dock at Norfolk to season, while the poor old G. Washington, a superannuated relic of antiquity goes whizzing through the canal with the slow and intreped gait of a jack ass toward a peck of oats, and instead of having a daily line, we have a try weekly one, which means the boat goes down one week and tries to get back the next. Not less than a dozen men have been turned away from this place within the past ten days on this account and have tried their fortues and cast their lots in other sections of the State. Must these things continue?

A FRIEND OF IMMIGRATION.

The Elections.

REPUBLICANISM TRIUMPHANT.

The Democracy, like old Pharoah and his Host, swept under by a Dead Sea. "Tidal Wave."

On the 7th inst the people of nine States assembled at the polls in their civic capacity. The year before the Presidential contest, each of these elections possessed peculiar interest and attracted widespread attention. The States that voted were New York, Massachusetts, Illinois, Maryland, New Jersey, Mississippi, Wisconsin, Minnesota, and Virginia.

NEW YORK.

New York, which last year gave Hoffman 33,000 majority has gone Republican by over 17,000, with a heavy majority in the Legislature. The Assembly now stands 96 Repnblicans to 32 Democrats, and the Senate 24 Republicans to 8 Democrats. This looks very much like a breaking up of the Democratic party in the State.

MASSACHUSETTS.

Massachusetts tells pretty much the same old story as to her Republican victory, by an increased majority over last year.

NEW JERSEY.

Joel Parker, Democrat, is elected Governor in this State, by a small majority, but both branches of the Legislature are largely Republican.

ILLINOIS.

Always true, has again given her usual Republican majority.

WISCONSIN.

Wisconsin has again rolled up a magnificent Republican majority, electing Washburne Governor, and securing a Republican Legislature.

MINNESOTA.

Horace Austin, the Republican candidate for Governor, is elected, and the Legislature is also Republican. A sweeping majority.

MISSISSIPPI.

In this State the Republicans have triumphed, and the Administration is sustained.

MARYLAND

Has, as was anticipated, elected a Democratic Governor, but the Republicans have gained everywhere in the interior of the State and elected several judges, members of the Legislature and local officers, which has not been done since the rebellion.

VIRGINIA

Has been carried by the Democracy. This has been caused by the dissension and bad management of the Republicans.

J. B. Wheeler, a North Carolinian, has been appointed Professor of Mathematics at West Point Academy.

A new postoffice has been established at Burgers, Hyde county, and Thomas H. Latham appointed postmaster.

The College of Physicians and Surgeons, Wilmington, have commenced the erection of a handsome building.

The village of Hickory Tavern is said to be growing very rapidly, and town lots are bringing good prices.

The Egypt coal mines are now being operated and large quantities of fine coal are turned out.

A number of North Carolinians, who removed to Indiana two years ago, have returned home.

The yearly meeting of Friends was held at North Garden, Guilford county, last week.

The real estate of North Caroline is valued at $68,240,509 exclusive of town property, which is valued at $12,900,901, aggregating $81,141,510. The total number of acres is 25,990,514.

The Democratic Party.

The following article is from the Raleigh Carolinian, the ablest and best conducted Democratic paper in the State. Its editor is an outspoken, dyed-in-the-wool Democrat, but he is independent enough to declare the truth. We bespeak for the article a careful perusal.

The political outlook from the Democratic point of observation is not now a cheerful one in North Carolina, and it were folly to attempt to disguise the facts in the case.

We have been frittering away our political strength for the past five years, until the good name and fair fame of the Democratic party is the only hope of its adherents. Believing that whatever is of good report must finally triumph, they have clung to the principles of the true Democracy, when only fidelity to principle could have sustained the Democrats of North Carolina and the South, and so they cling now to what is left with dogged persistence that defies the power of adverse circumstances.

Experience has illustrated that a Democrat thoroughly imbued with the principles of his party can neither be seduced from the course of the true Democracy, nor driven from any position where are involved any of the principles he holds.

But the doubting Thomases have been led and driven off by the score, and for a period of five years we have made no converts.

This is a startling fact and a most lamentable circumstance, that while the Republican party has been going on from day to day making adherents to its faith and adding more strength to its power, the Democratic party instead of replenishing has suffered an incessant depletion of its ranks.

And why is this? The great body of the white Republicans of North Carolina actually hold the principles of the Democratic party, while from the bottom of their hearts they dispise the principles and teaching of Radicalism.

The reason is plan—the answer readily at hand.

The Democrats of North Carolina and of the entire South have contented themselves with opposing everything and proposing nothing. A masterly inactivity has characterized their whole policy, while their weapons of defence instead of principles and arguments upon principles, have been the slangish phrases of political ribaldry, low personal abuse, vituperation and indecency. Our presses have teemed with falshooods, misrepresentations and foul abuses, until all influence upon the public mind has been lost.

Respectable gentlemen of the Republican party have been assailed, misrepresented and beslobbered by a filthy press until their personal friends among Democrats have turned in loathing and disgust from a party which fostered such tribunes and submitted to such leaders.

And the evil continues. Absolute lies are concocted and published to the world not to injure a political oppouent, merely, but solely to gratify a hellish hatred of inborn malignity.

Day by day our leading press rings with open and unblushing falsehoods, put forth in tones of the lowest vulgar and personal journalism.

An intelligent people will not stand this. The personal quarrels, hates or enmities of no single individual interest the whole people of North Carolino, and the public is always sufficiently discriminating to detect any falsehood, no matter by whom put forth.

We have written thus to apprise the Democrats of North Carolina of the true state of affairs in the political circles of the State, and to warn them that if these things contiuue, Democracy, instead of a name indicating power and strength, will become a by-word and a reproach among intelligent, decent and liberal minded North Carolinians.

Revenue Tax on Tobacco.

Important Letter fom the Treasury Department at Washington. Peddlers or Retail Dealers of Tobacco Pay a Special tax of Five Dollars, and may Retail anywhere in the State.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
OFFICE OF INTERNAL REVENUE,
Washington, Oct. 28th, 1871.

SIR:—In reply to your letter of Oct. 24th, in relation to peddling manufactured tobacco, I have to say that a manufacturer of tobacco may sell his product anywhere in the United States without paying a special tax as a dealer in tobacco, but he can sell only in the original and unbroken packages. He may send out an employee to peddle for him, who may sell in the same manner and nnder the same conditions as the manufacturer.

A peddler of tobacco, who is not an employee of the manufacturer, and whose sales exceed $100 per annum, is liable to a special tax, as a dealer in tobacco for selling manufactured tobacco in the manner of a peddler, and such a peddler who has paid the special tax for so selling tobacco, may retail from wooden packages, packed and stamped according to law.

Very respectfully,
J. W. DOUGLASS.
Commissioner.

It is understood that the plan of consolidation of the internal revenue districts, contemplated some time ago, has been abandoned for the present fiscal year.

A Chinaman who had his nose cut off during a little altercation in San Francisco had it carefully packed and sent back home, to show his friends one of the American customs.

"Five years ago," remarks the Philadalphia Press, "we fought the Democracy with the spelling-book and whipped them. This year our weapon is the arithmetic, and it is just as deadly."

Democrats who think their party might obtain Senator Trumbull's consent to run as their "passive" candidate for President should remember that it was he who wrote that portion of the Illinois Republican platform, which declares "that the Republican Party without any new departures is equal to the correcting of abuses, and the perfecting of needed reforms, and that its mission will not have ended until they are accomplished."

Our readers will remember that General Horace Capron, late Commissioner of Agriculture for the United States, has accepted an invitation to enter the service of the Japanese Governmet. He has had assigned to his use one of the Mikado, in Yedo, within the church property, and surrounded by the grand old temples of centuries past. The building has been fitted up with great taste for his use, and he is provided with the retinue of a prience. He expresses himself convinced that by a process more rapid than we at present conceive the Japanese will rise to a state of the highest civilization; "for," says he, "I believe them not only fully capable, but equally determined to accomplish it." He adds: "I feel that I shall have the hearty cooperation of the government in my work here, and trust that a higher power will sustain me in this responsible position. I can see a great deal of good to arise from it, both to this country and our own, by cementing together the two in this more intimate [illegible]."

☞The November weather in this section of the South is delightful. The health here is excellent. Our Farmers are having a splendid season for sowing their Oats and gathering their Corn.

☞Our Northern correspondents will find their questions answered by reading the Real Estate advertisements on our fourth page. The properties there advertised are—most of them—desirable and cheap.

☞One of our Road street Merchants says that he is finding out that advertising pays. His business is largely increasing and he is selling an immense quantity of goods. Judicious advertising always pays.

☞A correspondent write us that there is a buxom lass in his town who is anxious for a proposal, because, as she says, she has been bridesmaid eight times and has been tantalized enough in being so often a mere "looken on in Venice." We have a bachelor friend who would like to have that lady's name.

☞By his card in this issue of the NORTH CAROLINIAN it will be seen that our friend W. J MERCER, formerly of Currituck, and late of Norfolk, is now in the Produce and Commission business at Baltimore. A native North Carolinian, and a capital good fellow, let him be remembered.

☞The "slap in the face" given the old line Whigs by the Democratic State Committee in their recent Address will not be taken as meekly as those now "running the machine" expected. The genuine true hearted Whig is an honorable man, and he is a man of spirit. Those who undertake to lead him by the nose will find they have waked up the wrong passenger.

☞The matter complained of by a correspondent in this issue of the NORTH CAROLINIAN is no new thing to us. Time and again we have had similiar complaints from different sources. The accomodations for the traveling public between Norfolk and Elizabeth City are by no means what they should be. A line Company would not suffer such irregularities to occur. It is driving travel off the line and keeping immigration and capital away from here. The evil must be remedied. The "Jefferson" is a good boat. Another like it is needed, and they must be made to run on time.

☞Rev. S. S. LAMBETH, of the M. E. Church, delivered his farewell sermon to his congregation on Sabbath evening last. It was appropriate and eloquent. He left on Monday morning to attend Conference which meets at Portsmouth Va., this year. Mr. LAMBETH, has been an earnest and faithful minister, and by his consistant course has won the esteem and confidence of our entire community.

☞"They say" is a nuisance. He or she—the villian is not confined to sex—is forever making mischief, interfering with somebody's business, villifying somebody's character, always doing something mean. A snake in the grass "they say" proposes the warmest friendship to your face, at the same time vilely traducing you behind your back. Always look with suspicion on what is retailed to you in the shape of what "They say"

☞Our name sake at Raleigh says that there is an old negro in Perquimians county, considerably over a hundred years, who walks to Hertford, a distance of six miles, every Saturday for his molasses and tobacco. His name is Peter Grandberry, and belonged to the grandfather of Josiah T. Grandberry, Esq. The same paper says that there is another about the same age named Diver Rose, on the plantatation of J. C. SKINNER, Esq., Senator from Perquimas, quite active and lively. He is known to be over one hundred and ten by the records of the county. There is one about the same age, named Johnson, living on the plantation of C. W. HOLLOWELL, Esq., in this county.

☞Our Northern exchanges report the fall of snow in various localities. Here the flowers are still in bloom.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

IMPAIRED VITALITY.—When you feel as if the vital powers were giving away, strength gone, spirits depressed, memory failling, appetite lost, exhaustion stealing over every sense and parralyzing every energy, then is the time to resort to the powerfullly of nature, Dr. Walker's Vegetable Vinegar Bitters. The properties they embody soon work a glorious renovation in the debilitated system and the clouded mind.

THE ATMOSPHERE OF LOVE.—Is a pure sweet breath. This desideratum is one of the results of using Sozodont which not only invigorates and preserves the teeth, but renders the mouth as fragrant as a rose.

CHILDRENS LIVES SAVED FOR 50 CTS.—Every case of Croup can be cured when first taken, by Dr. Tobias' Venetian Liniment, warranted for 24 years, and never a bottle returned. It also cures Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Colic, Sore Throat, Cuts, Burns and external Pains. Sold by the Druggists, Depot 10 Park Palace, New York.

THE BEST COSMETIC,—Burnett's Kalliston produces a fresh complexion, removes tan and freckles, and imparts a velvety softness to the skin. Results attending exposure to our changeable climate upon the skin, may be entirely obviated by its use. For sale by all druggists.

PRATT'S ASTRAL OIL.—Not the Cheapest, but Safest and Best Illuminating Oil for family use ever made. Burns in the ordinary kerosene lamp. Does not take fire, nor explode if the lamp is upset and broken. Send for Circular. Oil House of Charles Pratt established 1770, New York.

RISLEY'S LINIMENT.— Of Arnica, Hops, Carbolic Acid, acts as a universal external cure-all, acting on the nerves connected with the skin; It promptly relieves Neuralgia Pains, Cleanses and cures old sores and ulcers, flesh wounds, burns, bruises, sprains, &c. Sold everywhere at 50 cents. Morgan & Risley, Wholesale Druggists, New York. General Agents.

THANKS TO THE TIMELY DISCOVERY.—Of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, the hearts of many parents have been made glad by witnessing the beneficial effects which this remedy never fails to produce during the critical period of teething.

CARBOLIC SALVE.—Nothing like it ever known before. Cures, cutes, burns, sores, wounds, &c., like magic. Physicians speak of it in terms of the highest praise. Price 25 cents per box. John F. Henry. Sole Proprietor, 8 College Palce, New York.

PHYSICIANS.—Who have prescribed Svapnia or Purified Opium use no other form of Opium in their practice.

CRISTADORO'S HAIR DYE.—If all his hairs were lives, Othello said, "my great revenge hath stomach for them all." But hair that's grey or sandy, white or red, the ladies have no stomach for at all. Use Christadoro's Dye and the evil is remedied. Manufactory, 68 Maiden Lane, New York.

BE GUIDED BY WHAT YOU KNOW.—There is an old proverb which says, "Experience is the saft guide." To this guide the sick and ailling naturally turn when casting about for the means of relief. They inquire what a medicine has done for others, before they adopt it themselves. Of all the remedies and preventives in use, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters meets the test most triumphantly, and hence it derives its popularity and vast sales. The sufferer from indigestion is sure to find some one among his friends who has been cured of this ailment by the famous vegetable stomachic. The victim of fever and ague, liver complaint, constipation, nervous prostration, or general debility, has only to make inquiry in the neighborhood where he resides in order to discover what this standard restorative has effected in cases similar to his own. In the published testimony to its merits he will find a volume of proofs of its sanitary properties, which it is impossible for his case even to resist. He tries it, and the effect it produces on his system adds another to the host of witnesses in its favor. Thus, its reputation, founded on facts not fictions, continually grows and spreads. Charlatans and imposition, some of them mere local bitch stews, and others who toil a contracted wider range, attempt to thrust into the hands and down the throats of credulous their hogshound concoctions, as substitutes for the tonic which for 20 long years has been a household word throughout the United States, Spanish America, Canada, and the West Indies, but such counsel to a deep rooted extent. In this connection the proprietors have ascertained what is easily discovered, that confidence in selling "runs[illegible]

A DIALOGUE.

"Hallow neighbor, where have you been and what is all that stuff you have there?"

"Why these are all goods of a variety of kinds. I only had a little money and wanted it go as far as possible, and heard of KEATON'S as a cheap store. I went there and laid out my funds and am satisfied that I saved at least FIFTY CENTS ON EVERY DOLLAR. I found another advantage—he has old experienced merchants for Clerks, and they know how to treat a customer as he should be. In fact it is all fair dealing: one need not be afraid of paying too high for any article, or of having a bad article put upon him.

"Why how is all this? It has only been about two weeks since I heard that 'this man Keaton only kept a little bit of grocery shop." I did not suppose it worth while to go there to look for a stock of anything."

"Yes, I heard the report, but I thought then as I do now that it was put in circulation by an envious infamous puppy for the purpose of injuring Keaton's trade or credit, or both. I'll warrant if you go there and look through and price his goods you will come to the same conclusion I have, that he keeps as near everything as any store in this town. He informs me that they were all purchased in the cities of Philadelphia and New York, and I see that they are being sold low, and that they are going off like "hot cakes."

KEATON'S is the place to go to save time and money in making purchases. Go and see for yourselves. 19—3t.

HORNER'S MARYLAND SUPER-PHOSPHATE.

WE COURT THE CHEMIST'S INQUIRY.

After 23 years' experience in the Fertilizing business, and after establishing a wide reputation for the purity and excellence of this Bone Dust, the subscriber has been induced to prepare a Phosphate suitable to the requirements and everyway worthy the attention of the Southern Farmer.

The "Maryland" is a rejuvinator and permanent improver of the soil. It stimulates equal to Peruvian Guano, and sustains equal to Bone, being composed almost entirely of these ingredients with a very liberal percentage of Potash in the residuum. There is no adulterator or inferior article used—every particle of the Phosphate being of essential benefit to the land. Neither pains nor expense have been spared in its preparation, and we claim for it the greatest benefit to the farmer from the smallest outlay. For cotton, wheat, corn, and as a general stimulant and aliment for worn and impoverished land, there can be nothing superior. It is waranted to run as high in Ammonia and higher in Bone Phosphate than any other fertilizer in the market. Price $50 per ton, in new bags. No charge for delivery. AGRICULTURAL, HORTICULTURAL AND DOMESTIC MATTERS.

The Old Jews as Farmers.

In his laws, Moses made agriculture the basis of the State. According to this principle he apportioned to every citizen a certain portion of land, marked by fixed boundaries. Land grabbing speculations were prevented by the law, which required all lands in the commonwealth to revert to the heirs of the original owners on the jubilee year. The occupation of the farmer was held in honor from being thus protected by the fundamental law of the State. None were so rich or noble as to disdain to put their hand to the plow. Various means were resorted to by the Hebrews to increase the fertility of their soil. The stones were gathered and built into walls, water was brought in aqueducts from great distances, and many kinds of manure were used. The hills were terraced to the very tops, and planted with vineyards and gardens. They cultivated wheat, barley, millet, beans, and perhaps rice. In agricultural implements the Hebrews were not so far behind the present age as we are prone to think. Isaiah lived 700 years before Christ, yet in his day iron plows were in use, for he prophesied of the time when swords should be turned to plowshares and spears to pruning-hooks. This passage shows too that they had instruments for pruning vines and trees.

The animals used in plowing were cattle and donkeys. Horses were not in common use among the Hebrews. The original method of harvesting grain was to pull up by the roots, but sickles were used among the Hebrews from the time of Joshua. Harvest among them was a time of rejoicing, cheerful songs being heard in every field. Threshing was effected by flails, the feet of animals, or by drays or rollers. Vineyards and olive groves were extensively and carefully cultivated. Culinary plants and fruit trees were among the first objects of attention. Palestine was said to flow with milk and honey. Bees were highly esteemed. Their hives were made of clay mixed with straw, but stores of honey were often found in hollow trees and fissures of the rocks.

One remarkable provision of the Mosaic law in regard to agriculture was the Sabbatic year. Every seventh year was a year of rest, not so much to the farmer as to the farm. Nothing was sown, and nothing was reaped; the vines were not pruned; there was no gathering of fruit. The object of this regulation seems to have been to perserve the wild beasts, to let the land recover strength, and to teach the people to be provident and look out for the future. But the year was not spent in idleness. The people could hunt, fish, look after their bees and flocks, repair their buildings or furniture, manufacture cloth, or carry on commerce.

Balky Horses.

The brain of a horse seems to entertain but one thought at a time; for this reason, continued whipping is out of the question, and only confirms his stubborn resolve. But if you can by any means change the direction of his mind, give him a new subject to think of, nine times out of ten you will have no further trouble in starting him. As simple a trick as a little pepper, aloes, or the like, thrown back on the tongue, will often succeed in turning attention to the taste in his mouth. The pair of cattle to a log chain around the horse's neck, is an intricate and expensive remedy, and a good many people may not be so lucky as your Fond du Lac man, in having a yoke of cattle handy for the occasion.

A simpler and cheaper remedy that will result far differently, is to take a couple of turns of common wrapping twine, such as grocers use, around the foreleg just below the knee, tight enough for the horse to feel, and tie in a bow knot. At the first club he will generally go dancing off, and after going a short distance you can get out and remove the string, to prevent injury to the tendon in your further drive.

The first lesson in this simple process was in Lexington; subsecuent experience has proved its utility when applied to balky horses. The philosophy of the appliance is something on the same principle as that whereof we once read for preventing hens from scratching up the garden. Put gaffs or spurs on the hens, reversing them—Instead of the points up, have them pointing downward. Then, when the hen lifts a leg to scratch, as it descends the point of the spur catches in the ground, placing that foot forward; and the stroke with the other leg is attended with like results, until the hen walks herself right out of the garden.—Turf, Field and Farm

Hints to Farmers.

Don't let your horses be seen standing much at the tavern door; it don't look right.

Don't give the merchant a chance to dun you. Prompt payments make independent men.

Keep good fences, especially line fences; they promote good feeling among neighbors.

A decent, substantial clothing for your children makes them think better of themselves, and keep the doctors away.

Don't starve your land; if you do it will grow lean.

Don't buy patent rights to sell again.

Buy a farm wagon before a fine carriage.

Don't become surety for him who waits for the sheriff.

If you have a yoke of oxen don't be ashamed of them and give your note for a span of horses.

Don't run for a constable; you may get him and let the plow stand.

Sheep.

Some way or other agriculture seems incomplete without a flock of sheep.—They are essential to thick set longevity of the old grass land, and all the world over and in olden times they were esteemed as most important, and in the most improved agricultural country, viz: England, they are cherished by every farmer, from the highest to the lowest. The wool is one of the incomes which cannot be dispensed with and the flocks are so managed that the tegs cut heavier and more valuable fleeces than older sheep; in fact teg fleeces in England not only weigh thirty per cent. heavier than those of the ewes, but make ten or more per cent. higher prices. If any tenant farmer in the regular agricultural districts of England farmed without sheep, he would soon lose his crops, and nobody would rent to a man who did not practice sheep husbandry.—Cor. Country Gentleman.

The Belgian Government has forwarded $20,000 to America for the relief of the Belgian settlers in Wisconsin who have suffered by the forest fires. The Government has also opened a subscription for voluntary contributions for the same object.

DESCRIPTIVE CATALOGUE.

OF VALUABLE

NORTH CAROLINA LANDS,

FOR SALE BY

GEORGE D. POOL.

Real Estate Agent,

ELIZABETH CITY, N. C.

In presenting my list of lands and other properties for sale, I would say that no section of the United States offers such inducements for capitalists and emigrants, as this section of North Carolina. In longevity and healthfulness, it will compare favorably with any where; and in easy and cheap transportation of products to market, in pleasantness of climate, in the sociability of the people, in great fertility, and durability of soil, no section can equal it.

A railroad will soon be built to Weldon, putting this place in direct communication by Rail, with the whole United States. This, together with our great fishing, farming and manufacturing interests, and certain early completion of already projected works of improvement for putting in nearer, cheaper and easier communication with the Ocean, will render this one of the most important commercial, and manufacturing points on the Southern country.

A Steam Saw and Grist Mill in the town of Nixonton 8 miles from E. City. This Mill has a fine wharf and store attached on deep navigable water, the engine is 40 horse power, and all in good order. It is one of the finest locations to be found any where for custom work, and for getting good saw logs easily and cheaply. Price $4,000 cash.

Adjoining the mill property is 40 acres of fine land on the River, with three houses, all for $1200. Near the same is a good two story dwelling and 15 acres of land for $2,000, and a good one story dwelling, with one acre of land for $500.

Also two fine farms in Pasquotank county, 10 miles from E. City, within half mile of church, school house and post office. One tract contains about 400 acres, with fair buildings and mostly cleared, and the other contains 300 acres, with good two story dwelling, large barn, and other outhouses, both are offered at $20 per acre, one third cash, balance in one and two years.

Also one other tract in Pasquotank county, containing 146 acres, within one mile of the town with fine buildings, mostly cleared and in cultivation. Price $25 per acre, one half cash, balance in 12 months.

A valuable site for a hotel at Nag's Head, 40 miles from Elizabeth City, and 50 miles from Edenton. This is situated immediately on the Ocean, and is a famous Summer resort for invalids, and those seeking health, comfort, and amusements during the summer months. It is in direct communication by steamboats and railroad with all parts of North Carolina, Virginia, and the North; and is equal in natural advantages to Newport, or Cape May. Visitors flock to this famous summer resort by hundreds and thousands, and a large amount of money can be made by a hotel. A charter has been obtained from the Legislature of N. C., for a joint stock company to build the hotel. There is now an old hotel on the spot, which could be cheaply repaired and bought for $3,000. For a man or a company, having some capital, this is one of the finest chances to make money at hotel keeping to be found anywhere. The early attention of the public is invited to this property.

A fine steam saw and grist mill at Hertford, the county seat of Perquimans County, N. C. 18 miles from Elizabeth City. This mill has a fifty horse power engine, now in good running, two pairs of best French burr stones, and two upright saws. The house has a brick basement, and the building is large and in good order. There is one and a half acres of land belonging to this property, and a good two story dwelling, and other out-houses. The section of country adjacent abounds in the finest yellow pine, cypress, ash, poplar, and other valuable timber. This property originally cost $15,000, and is now offered at forced sale for the low price of $3,500, $7.00, cash, and the balance in six equal instalments, six months apart each with interest.

A fine farm and fishery in same county. The farm contains 400 acres of the finest land, lies immediately on Albemarle Sound where the water is 12 miles wide, and 18 to 20 feet deep, has got buildings, and fine neighborhood. The fishery is on the farm and goes with it. It has a new seine 2,500 yards long, and all the necessary boats, buildings, &c., (which cost over $15,000 two years ago.) The fishery alone, of a good season, will make from 5 to $10,000 profit to the owner. This property is offered at forced sale for the low price of $20,000, $7,000 cash, balance on easy times.

A store at South Mills, in Camden county, 20 miles from E. City, and 20 miles from Norfolk, lying on the canal where steamers pass daily. A fine chance for merchandize. Store is large with dwelling above containing six rooms, is in first rate order, has office, kitchen, dairy, and other necessary outhouses. Goods to the amt. of $50,000 per annum can be sold here, and at large profits. A splended stand for a country retail store. Price $2,500—one third cash, balance in one and two years.

A valuable tract of land in Camden county, at South Mills, on the Dismal Swamp Canal, lying on the canal for two miles, containing over 900 acres of land—two-thirds cleared, and in a fine state of cultivation, with good buildings, &c.; balance in valuable timber. Price $12,000, one-third cash, balance in one and two years, interest from January, 1871. This is a valuable farm for corn, wheat, and vegetables, and being midway between Elizabeth City and Norfolk, and located where steamers pass by the door daily, is a desirable and cheap property.

A fine farm of 600 acres within six miles of E. City, one mile from navigable water, and the best cotton farm in the State. It is also well adapted to raising corn and wheat. This farm has a splended two-story dwelling upon it, large barn, 40 by 60 feet, a large number of outhouses, by splended trees and shrubbery, is in a strong Union neighborhood, and altogether the most desirable place in the county. A little over one-half of this land is cleared, and the balance is covered with the finest yellow pine, poplar, ash and other timber. Price $30 per acre—one-third cash, balance in one and two years with interest. Title reserved.

Sixteen houses and lots in Elizabeth City, with good dwellings, out-houses, &c. Prices and terms reasonable.

A valuable farm in Perquimans county N. C. near navigable water. Has a fine dwelling-house with ten rooms, in splendid order, with splended barns and stables—all in first rate order. The farm is very productive in corn, oats, wheat, cotton and clover. It is one of the finest farms in the State and is now in good cultivation, contains 365 acres of land, about three-fourths cleared and under cultivation. Price $10,000, one-third cash January 1, next balance in two equal annual instalments with interest at the rate of six per cent.

A farm of 370 acres 5 miles from town by water, and 12 miles by land, is offered for sale for $10,000 in easy payments. This tract of land lies immediately on the River which is 4 miles wide and washes the farm its whole length on one side, and a branch of the River one mile wide, binds it on one end. The land is well adapted to raising corn, wheat, cotton, oats, peas, &c., lies high and dry, and is susceptible of the highest improvement. Fronting and looking over, as it does, two large sheets of navigable water, where steamers and sailing vessels are constantly passing, carrying freight and passengers to all parts of the country, its location and surroundings, are of the most fascinating and desirable character. There is a fishery on it ready for working a seine 2,500 yards long, and which commands a portion of both streams of water, and can be made immensely profitable. The price charged is low, and the purchase a very desirable one. The buildings consist of a good two-story dwelling and out-houses.

A tract of valuable land, containing 356 acres, with fine two story dwelling containing 9 rooms and cook-room. Servant's house with 3 rooms, large barns and stables, all necessary and convenient out-houses, 3 tenant-houses near town, and immediately on the River. About 100 acres of this land is in fine wood and timber, balance in a fine state of cultivation. It has 8,000 grape vines one year old, 3,500 peach, apple and dwarf pear trees, five acres in strawberries which yielded an immence profit this year, ten acres in Lawton and other rare varieties of black-berries, 15 to 20,000 young peach trees with other choice fruits too numerous to mention. This farm has a public road on one side, and the River on the other, where strangers come daily to the landings to receive the fruits and vegetables, and carry them down to Norfolk, Baltimore, Phila., or New York. The land is finely adapted to raising corn, wheat, cotton, oats, and all other field crops.

The owner of this farm offers to sell in tracts, to suit purchasers, say in 50 to 100 acre tracts, and at prices ranging from 35 to $80 per acre, according to location, buildings, &c.

There is also on this farm a fine fishery, where seine 1,000 yards long, and 20 feet deep is hauled every Spring. Herring, Shad, Rock-fish, Sturgeon and other valuable fish, are caught by thousands at every draw of the seine. And the profits are frequently large. This fishery of itself is worth nearly as much as is charged for the whole property. The terms will be liberal. This is probably the finest opportunity offered any where for a profitable investment.

☞ Fishery has an office, and two houses for hands besides fish house. Then some 500 to 1,000 loads of best fish manure on hand, besides over 5,000 loads of compost made ready for use. This goes with the farm.

A desirable house and lot in the town of Elizabeth City on the corner of two principal streets, the principal one, and situated in the best business locality in the town. The lot contains about two acres of land, and the buildings consist of a fair dwelling three stories high, containing eight rooms, all in good order, another two story building with four rooms and pantries, dairy, smokehouse, stables, &c. The dwelling has a good cellar under it. There is room on the front lot to erect two good stores, and they would occupy the best stand in the town for merchandize.

TO THE PUBLIC.

THE LAND AND LUMBER COMPANY having a large amount of Real Estate of their own to dispose of, and their business having increased to such an extent, they think it prudent to decline acting further as Commission Agents for the sale of lands belonging to others. They will however be glad at all times to furnish every facility to parties coming to Elizabeth City with a desire to look at the country and make purchases if they find it to their interest to do so.

The following list of property, owned by the Company, is offered for sale on the most reasonable terms. Their object now is to acquire a larger monied capital for the purpose of further developing their unimproved lands and carrying out their original design of increasing the Commerce and General Trade of Elizabeth City.

As there are others in the Commission Business, parties are referred to their advertisement for further information.

ELIZABETH CITY.

The following desirable list of Properties in Elizabeth City are offered at very reduced prices for cash or on time payments at rates which make any of them excellent investments for capitalists. We feel confident that this City is destined to become a large place and property will advance rapidly. Emigration is now tending Southernward and the feeling is in universal favor toward Elizabeth City.

A large two-story dwelling known as the Parsonage, with fine double Piazza, front and back, large out kitchen, stables, carriage house, with 17 acres of ground well enclosed. This ground is all within the corporation of the City, and is well situated to lay out in building lots and make out of it ten fold the price asked for it.

A two-story dwelling containing ten rooms, 10,000 gallon cistern and all necessary out-houses, with large lot. Situated on Main Street. A Vacant Lot no better located and not so large as this was sold recently for $1600 cash.

A large brick store house and wharf situate on Water street; in E. City, comprising three lots with 400 feet of water front, permanently wharfed for the accommodation of large vessels. There is erected on these lots a large two-story brick building, 50 by 80 feet, well fitted up for a wholesale or retail trade at present occupied by the "Yankee Store."

A large wood store on west side of Water street 36 by 60, two stories high, being one of the best stands on Water street for merchandizing.

A House and Lot on Riverside Avenue. House 20ft front by 50 ft deep. Containing eight rooms with Pantry and Cellar, all well finished, modern style, and having all necessary out buildings. The lot contains a front of 400 ft, and would be a good location for a large shop or foundry as one whole side fronts on the water.

Also a large number of Wharf Lots, Mill Lots and Vacant Lots at very low prices, some of which are enumerated below. The Wharf Lots are 200ft deep and will be sold to any size desired along the River. Among them are some most eligible situations for Store Houses, Mills and Manufactories of any kind as there is a fine harbor immediately in front of them, having 30ft of water, sufficient for vessels of any capacity. Along Pennsylvania Avenue are offered some of the finest and choicest lots, for dwellings in town at prices varying according to location. This will be the finest street in town, is 80 feet wide, size of Lot 100ft front by 200ft deep. There are now a number of first class residences being erected on this street. Immediately in the vicinity of these Lots the Company have erected a large Planing Mill, Sash, Blind and Door Factory at a cost of near $20,000 and also their Saw Mill at a cost of near $15,000. That now is the proper time to invest in those Lots there can be no doubt, as they will double in value in a very short time. Lots not near so good as these, are now selling in other parts of the City at more than double the price asked for these.

VACANT LOTS.

Lots Nos. 150, 155, 158, 161, 163, 165, 167, 170. 172. 175, 178, 180, 182. 185, 187. 190' 193, 195, 198 and 200, situate on Pennsylvania avenue, in the new extension of Elizabeth City, all choice lots, intended for the better class of residences. This land will be sold in lots to suit purchasers and at the low price of ten dollars per acre.

They also offer a tract of three thousand acres in Lots to suit purchasers, near the Pasquotank River, ten miles from Elizabeth City and three miles from South Mills. This land is heavily set with wood and also has upon it a vast amount of saw timber, and has a most excellent soil. This is a fine location for a small Colony. There is now a Public Road running directly through it. This tract is offered at the low price of eight dollars per acre if sold to one party, or at only a fraction more if divided into small lots.

The Company will also sell their farm of 150 acres two miles from Elizabeth City. 125 acres cleared and under good cultivation, well fenced, having upon it two dwelling houses, one new and the necessary out buildings wanted on a farm, and will be sold on very reasonable terms.

Also another farm one mile from Elizabeth City containing one hundred acres, between thirty and forty acres cleared and under cultivation, the balance is now being cut off and is nearly ready to be cleared up and cultivated. This property is very desirable being so near the City though for reasons first given will be sold at a very low price.

We have a finely timbered tract of land situated on the Albemarle Sound twenty miles from Elizabeth City, containing 124 acres. Good timber land bordering on the water is valuable both for wood as well as saw timber as water transportation affords a good margin for wood, say one dollar per cord. This will also make good farm land—will be sold for one thousand dollars.

Also one other tract of land containing 154 acres situated immediately on the Pasquotank River ten miles from Elizabeth City, valuable for wood, and is excellent farming lands, would be sold for six dollars per acre.

Has made the most astonishing cures; so quick, so rapid are the changes the body undergoes, under the influence of this truly wonderful medicine, that

EVERY DAY AN INCREASE IN FLESH AND WEIGHT IS SEEN AND FELT.

THE GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER.

Every drop of the SARSAPARILLIAN RESOLVENT communicates through the Blood, Sweat, Urine, and other fluids and juices of the system the vigor of life, for it repairs the wastes of the body with new and sound material. Scrofula, Syphili, Consumption, Glandular disease, Ulcers in the throat, Mouth, Tumors, Nodes in the Glands and other parts of the system, Sore Eyes, Strumorous discharges from the Ears, and the worst forms of Skin diseases, Eruptions, Fever Sores, Scald Head, Ring Worm, Salt Theum, Erysipelas, Acne, Black Spots, Worms in the Flesh, Tumors, Cancers in the Womb, and all weakening and painful discharges. Night Sweats, Loss of Sperm and all wastes of the life principle, are within the curative range of this wonder of Modern Chemistry, and a few days' use will prove to any person using it for either of these forms of disease its potent power to cure them.

If the patient, daily becoming reduced by the wastes and decomposition that is continually progressing, succeeds in arresting these wastes, and repairs the same with new material made from healthy blood—and this the SARSAPARILLIAN will and does secure—a cure is certain; for when once this remedy commences its work of purification, and succeeds in diminishing the loss of wastes, its repairs will be rapid, and every day the patient will feel himself growing better and stronger, the food digesting better, appetite improving, and flesh and weight increasing.

Not only does the SARSAPARILLIAN RESOLVENT excels all known remedial agents in the cure of Chronic, Scrofulous, Constitutional, and Skin diseases; but it is the only positive cure for KIDNEY & BLADDER COMPLAINTS, Urinary, and Womb diseases, Gravel, diabetes, Dropsy, Stoppage of Water, Incontinuence of Urine, Bright's Disease, Albuminuria, and in all cases where there are brick dust deposits, or the water is thick, cloudy, mixed with substances like the white of an egg, or threads like silk, or there is a morbid, dark, bilious appearance, mixed with bone-dust, deposits, and when there is a pricking, burning sensation when passing water, and pain in the Small of the Back and along the Loins.

R. WALKER, Proprietor. R. H. McDONALD & CO. Druggists and General Agents, San Francisco, California, and 32 and 34 Commerce Street, New York.

MILLIONS Bear Testimony to their Wonderful Curative Effects. They are not a vile Fancy Drink, made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors doctored, spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true medicine, made from the native roots and herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and a LIFE GIVING PRINCIPLE, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the System, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing also, the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and all the Visceral Organs.

FOR FEMALE COMPLAINTS, whether in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or at the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters have no equal.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms are the offsprings of Dyspepsia.

They Invigorate the Stomach and stimulate the torpid Liver and Bowels, which render them of unequaled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities, and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-worms, Scald Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the System in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effects.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions, or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

Pin, Tape, and other Worms, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. Says a distinguished physiologist, there is scarcely an individual upon the face of the earth whose body is exempt from the presence of worms. It is not upon the healthy elements of the body that worms exist, but upon the diseased humors and slimy deposits that breed these living monsters of disease. No system of Medicine, no vermifuges, no anthelmintics, will free the system from worms like these Bitters.
